

FAIRYLAND STORY STARTER

We've pulled together the start of a Blackgang Chine story below. Let your imagination run wild and finish the story in your own words! Don't forget to share your story with us when you're finished!

The Midnight Moon Ball of the fairies was in full swing. As we danced the night away, the orchestra played sweet, energetic tones filling the inside of the spiritual oak tree. As we fluttered our wings and filled the air with dance, the climax of the night was swiftly approaching; the crowning of the new Fairy Queen. I felt the magic within me brimming in the moonlight; would it be me? Could it be me? Through all my doubts I felt a spark ignite within me, as a burst of magic filled the room with light, suddenly I awoke from what felt like a dream. I looked around to see my fellow fairies stunned in awe, had I found my power? What fairy am I? Which element am I destined to inherit?...

Share your completed activities with us!

#LandofImagination

